

CROWN PRINCE CLINGS TO WIFE

Loss of Throne Has No Terrors for Son of Rumanian King.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 26.—In answer to pleas that he desert his bride of humble birth, Crown Prince Charles of Rumania has replied that thrones are so unstable nowadays that he preferred the certainty of having the wife he wanted to the chance of losing the succession.

The escape of the crown prince in going to Odessa and marrying Cecilie Lambing, the daughter of a major in the Rumanian army, re-opens the question of the Rumanian dynastic succession. When King Ferdinand heard of the marriage he ordered the crown prince be given seventy-five days solitary confinement for absconding himself without leave from his garrison.

King Ferdinand also sent an emissary to the young couple to try to undo the nuptial knot but to no avail. The bride refused to part with her wedding ring and the crown prince declined to leave her.

Crown Prince Charles has not yet voluntarily renounced his rights of succession and the king is reported to be very angry. The Rumanian constitution does not contain a clause barring a morganatically married crown prince from succession to the throne.

Big Opening of Liberty Loan Is Being Planned

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The opening of the campaign for the fourth Liberty loan in New York tomorrow night will be proclaimed by powerful police, air-raid sirens, the ringing of church bells and thousands of other sound producers about half an hour before President Wilson speaks at the Metropolitan opera house. It will be the first test of the electrically operated air-raid whistles, which, it is believed, can be heard for 15 miles. Emergency whistles at 150 police stations also will be blown continuously for five minutes.

Simultaneously with the opening of the meeting at the opera house, police reserves and ten thousand volunteers will begin the distribution of 1,500,000 copies of "a surplus paper" throughout the city.

The formal opening of the drive to sell at least $1,800,000,000 worth of bonds in the New York federal reserve district will be on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Every man, woman and child is requested to rise at that hour and stand facing the east, looking toward France and Pershing.

SENATE DEBATING WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Advocates Determined to Keep Subject Before Senators Until Vote Is Taken.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—When the senate convened today with maximum membership mustered and with crowded galleries, the house resolution proposing submission of the Susan B. Anthony woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution was called up by Senator Jones of New Mexico, chairman of the woman suffrage committee.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Equal suffrage was finally brought to an issue today in the senate.

After many delays the resolution adopted by the house last January providing for submission to the states of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment to the federal constitution was taken up with advocates determined to keep it continuously before the senate until a vote was had.

Whether the suffragists would win their fight of half a century, apparently remained in doubt although suffrage forces were confident of victory when they descended on the capitol long before the senate met. A two-thirds majority is necessary to pass the resolution.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 26.—Less than half of the 1437 delegates accredited were in attendance at the Republican state convention when it opened here this forenoon. Absence of any sort of a contest was responsible for the light attendance.

The convention is to nominate candidates for several state offices.

Resolutions to be presented, it is understood, will declare for woman suffrage, prohibition, federal control of utilities needed to prosecute the war and an amendment to the primary laws to prevent any man running for office on more than one ticket as was done by Henry Ford in August.

The speakers include National Chairman Will H. Hays, United States Senator Charles E. Townsend and Governor Sleeper.

Crowds filled the senate corridors early, some of the women carrying lunches, going to the capitol about 8:30 o'clock. The crush became so great that the doors of the galleries reserved for the National American Woman's Suffrage association and the Woman's party were opened at 10:30, a half hour ahead of time.

Members of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, were seated across the senate chambers from the forces favoring the amendment. Flowers of the colors of the several organizations were worn by the women giving a vivid color setting to the galleries.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The senate elections committee today, by a vote of 10 to 1, decided to postpone until after the November elections consideration of the resolution providing for an investigation into expenditures made in the primary campaign in Michigan which resulted in Truman H. Newbury receiving the Republican nomination.

COMMENTS ON VON HERTLING

Real Admission of Seriousness of Internal Situation in Germany Interests American Officials.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—There was just one thing in Chancellor von Hertling's speech which interested American officials. It was his frank and open admission of the seriousness of the internal situation in Germany.

Following so closely upon the formal declaration by the Social Democrats of the conditions upon which their party would consent to participate in the government the speech was regarded as intended primarily for internal consumption in Germany. It is regarded as part of a plan to persuade the Socialists to come to the aid of the government in its grave straits by demonstrating that there are no substantial differences of principle between their party and the government.

The marked similarity between the statements made by von Hertling regarding the basis of peace and those principles laid down by the Socialists at once was noticed.

Brest-Litovsk Peace Not Wanted. When attention was directed to von Hertling's statement that he had had no response from the United States to his proposal last February to accept in principle the conditions of peace laid down by President Wilson, officials pointed out that the president himself had effectively exposed the insincerity of von Hertling's proposal when in his Baltimore speech, he pointed to the crime against Russia as a sufficient reason for rejecting any offer to discuss "Brest-Litovsk fashion."

Furthermore, it was declared that there could be no talk of peace until the last German and Austrian soldier has been withdrawn or driven from the occupied territory.

The inclination of the government to regard the speech as the latest move in the German peace offensive and as insincere and unworthy of consideration is based upon the feeling that in scarcely a single point does the premier make an unqualified declaration of adherence to the fourteen principles laid down by President Wilson. Everywhere in his speech officials said there were limitations and qualifications.

Desperation in Germany. Through neutral countries have come reports of disorganization, mutiny, rioting and desperation in Germany, but it remained for the German chancellor to add the official confirmation which was wanting.

HOBOES FACE ARREST. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—Railroad detectives of East St. Louis, Ill., have been notified by Federal Manager Galgowsky that persons found "hoboeing" their way on trains or steamboats shall be liable to arrest, fine and imprisonment under the war revenue act.

GEORGE BROTHERTON

Bugler George Brotherton, is the son of Mrs. William Piggett of this city. He was one of the first boys to join Battery B when war was first declared and at the time was not twenty years of age. He is now chief bugler with the battery and is in France. The latest letter from the young soldier follows:

"My Dear Mother and All: Nothing to do for a while so will write. We are on board and have been for some time. It seems like weeks instead of days since we had our feet on old mother earth, and I for one have been on water long enough. I wish I could tell you all about our trip and our movements. It sure would be interesting but there are so few things we are allowed to talk of. However we are allowed to talk of, however we are on a train at Leary, got off at Camp Mills, got on again at Mills and got off at an Atlantic port and then on a big boat. All I've seen for days is water, and then more water and it seems there is no land. Two years ago I never dreamed of going all over the U. S. and part of Europe. But here I am, right on my way. I will tell you and send pictures of your old home, but that is all I shall be able to send. Our trip so far has been excellent, only a couple of days being a little rocky, you know, tipsy. I haven't been seasick yet, or hardly any of the boys have and here's hoping we don't, for I had that experience on the Pacific coast. Well, I'll close for the night and get ready for retreat and an English supper. Another day, well, we have had a little rough sea this evening, it is also foggy, but like a storm was coming up. Well, no storm yet. I understand we are now in the submarine zone. Maybe I'll send this, maybe I won't. I hope they don't get us for the wind is blowing and its cold and the water looks like it was 150 below zero—cold any way. Well, mother we are now to have a talk by our Chaplain Roberts, so I will lay this aside for awhile.

"Another day. The chaplain gave us a very interesting talk last evening on vocation and avocation. He explained the difference between the words and gave us a good clear talk on our vocation. He makes one think. He is so clear, one can understand and follow him in his subject. We all like to hear him. I would go many miles to hear him speak. We all think a great deal of our chaplain.

"The fog is still hanging around and it is still quite cold, in fact we have to bundle up to stay on deck. Nothing exciting has happened so far except Jack McKinnon fell out of his hammock last night. I don't have a hammock and someone stole my mattress so I had to find the soft side of a board and I am pretty sore today. Ha! ha! Oh, this is the life. I like the experience. We get the brief war news by wireless every day and from appearances there will be no scrap left for us fellows if we don't hurry. I expect a year will see us on our way back. Won't that be great. We sign the pay roll today. I wonder where we will sign the next payroll? Our foreign pay started the 15th of August.

"Well, Mother dear, I hope none of this is blotted out. We have to be so careful what we write about. I am feeling great and everything is going to be all right so don't worry. Write often. Lots of love to all, "GEORGE."

Williams Assailed By State Bankers At Chicago Meeting

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—John Skelton Williams comptroller of the currency was vigorously assailed by state bankers at today's sessions of the American Bankers' association convention. During the entire day speaker after speaker in the state bank section referred to a recent statement of the comptroller which for a brief period compared failures in state and national banks to the disappearance of the former. This culminated in a resolution adopted by the section with only one dissenting vote which "regarded as unfortunate" this statement.

Charles H. Sabin of New York showed that state bank and trust company failures affected only .02 per cent of the resources of state institutions and that there were no state bank failures in forty-four states during the first seven months of 1918.

The Hun— His Mark!

There is a plain fact that every American business man must face. This war is not a dollar war. It is a war for justice, for truth, for right, and for human decency. Its financial aspects are minor aspects when measured against terms of human suffering and bloodshed.

But still the question must be asked and must be answered by American men: "Shall the German mark conquer the American dollar?"

What the Dollar Stands For

The American dollar stands for a business world of square dealing, of equal opportunity to all people, of free commercial intercourse all over the world.

You know what the German mark stands for—a commercial system as an active instrument of foul plotting, espionage, and Prussian propaganda.

Enlist Your Dollars

Every American dollar must be enlisted in the great army that is now being mobilized against the Potsdam autocracy—the great army of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Enlist your dollars to win a world in which fair dealing and an equal opportunity for all shall be the guiding principles.

Buy all the Liberty Bonds you can. Every bond you buy safeguards your home, your business—all you possess, and all you hope to have.

OGDEN SHOULD SUBSCRIBE ITS FULL SEPT. 28 QUOTA Volunteer Day

You are going to subscribe—everyone is going to subscribe. Do it early—the first day. Solicitors will come later if necessary. But you'll not make it necessary. No American will stand back at such a call. He will be first in the ranks; he is no slacker. FIRST DAY VOLUNTEERS will receive a Volunteer's Badge of Honor.

Six thousand dollars is the amount of money subscribed by this organization yesterday to aid Uncle Sam in his fight for world freedom and a lasting peace, and in addition to this the organization has liberally subscribed to all other loans.

It is earnestly hoped that Ogden will be able to have many more 100 per cent showings and that every institution in the county will try and emulate the brilliant showing of the Ogden Iron works.

What Time Is It?

In order to release Labor and Equipment for the efficient handling of essential traffic, we must, beginning next Monday, Sept. 30, at 12.01 o'clock in the morning, discontinue giving the time of day in response to such inquiries over the Telephone. We must also, at the same time, discontinue "Alarm Clock Calls"—the practice of calling people at certain hours in the morning—the telephone bell taking the place of the jangle of "Big Ben".

IT IS TIME TO CONSERVE THE USE OF THE TELEPHONE

It is time to conserve labor and equipment by the elimination of traffic which is outside the normal functions of a telephone exchange.

In Our Mountain States System We Answer A Daily Average of 62533 Calls for the Time of Day

This is equivalent to the work of over thirty operators every day in the year.

Certainly this is not a service that should be demanded in these unusual times when every unity of labor and every unit of equipment is required for war service.

It isn't a pleasure to withdraw privileges from our patrons, but sentiment finds no place in the grim necessities of war. May we hope for a cheerful acceptance of this very necessary action on our part?

Parents, Please Note

More calls for the time of day are made by children than by adults especially between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning when the youngsters are getting ready for school. Will you please help us by informing your children of the discontinuance of this service.
